A WAR CONVENTION

"KEEP OUR SOLDIERS CLEAN FOR GOD AND COUNTRY."

1,051 DELEGATES HERE

Opening Session of State Sunday School Association Hears Stirring Address by President Danforth.

To the stirring martial music of "America," sung by more than a thousand voices the fifty-second annual convention of the Missouri Sunday School association was called at two o'clock this afternoon in the First Baptist church, William H. Danforth, president of the association, presiding.

Flags and the national colors combined with the soft green ferns and plants in the decorations emphasized the fact that this is a war convention and as such carries a significance greater than any other gathering of the association.

The half hour song service preceding the call to order was led by A. E. Buss of St. Louis. Besides having a voice that is wonderfully fine and of great volume, Mr. Buss plays a cornet with a skill that adds considerably to the charm of the service.

Mr. Danforth, in his opening speech struck the keynote of the entire convention which he said, "It is our war convention and we are soldiers, fighters, who should go over the top with honor."

As a public speaker, Mr. Danforth puts into his words the virility, snap and earnestness that has marked his personality in church and business life.

All Honor to Our Soldiers.

"One of the largest army camps is near St. Louis," ocntinued Mr. Danforth in his speech, "recently I stood and watched a bunch of enlisted men march up to the doctors' offices and take their final examination. When their certificate is issued they are given their uniform. This is the most interesting part of the soldier's enlistment. When he dons that uniform, he is your boy and my boy. With the sending back of his own clothes he ceases to belong to his mother and father only, he is his country's boy.

"That khaki he wears stands for loyalty, courage, honor. I want him to have a clean heart under that color. So do you. And you and I want to do all we can to help him keep that honor clean for God, his country and himself.

"In this war convention we are soldiers. We are given a uniform that stands for honor and loyalty and there is no better message your president can give you than to be a fighter, clean at heart and go over the top with honor."

Over 1,000 delegates and visitors are already in the city but not all of them will register until this evening, many of them getting located before attending the opening sessions. Over 700 hunregistered at headquarters at the Baptist church and more are coming on the evening trains. It seems more than likely that the estimate of 1,000 delegates will be exceeded.

At four of the churches this afternoon the general and conference sessions are in progress. Tonight at the Christian church the song service will be led by A .E. Buss. The speakers are L. E. Gibson of Des Moines, Mrs. M. J. Baldwin of Chicago and Mrs. Nelle G. Burger ofClark, Mo.

At the Baptist church the speakers will be John L. Alexander of Chicago, L. E. Gibson and Mrs. Burger.

CONVENTION NOTES

W. S. Dearmont, president of the State Normal School at Cape Girardeau, Mo., was one of the early arrivals last night and will remain throughout the convention.

J. L. Housekeeper, secretary of the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church at Maywood, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City, is attending the convention.

W. L. Biggs of Mound City, vice president of the Holt county Sunday School association, was among the first arrivals yesterday. He says there will be a large delegation from his county.

Mrs. E. A. Burke of Harrisonville, one of the well known workers of Cass county, is here for the convention. Mrs. Burke is president of the elemen tary division of her county.

The American Baptist Publishing Society is represented by W. E. Ourgood of St. Louis, with exhibits and literature.

All of the denominational publishing houses have representatives here for the convention. W. H. Fitzgerald of Nashville, Tenn., has an exhibit for the M. E. Church, South, publishing company; H. O. Chapman of Kansas City represents the M. E. publishing company and Geo. W. Garner handles the literature for the Presbyterian board.

The Kansas City and rural Jackson county delegation arrived at noon on their special. The Kansas City delegates were headed by Myron Settle and numbered 200. The delegation from the country numbered sixty and was in charge of Frank W. Rucker, and all the officers of the county association. One-half the Sunday schools in the territory are represented.

F. H. Barrett, superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school at Skidmore, came to the convention this morning at the head of a delegation from his school, which included Miss Ada Foster, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spahr, Miss Fannie Allbright, Mrs. R. A. Walker and Mrs. G. O. Riley.

Lansing F. Smith, chairman of the executive committee and president of the American Education society of St. Louis, is an old friend of William Moll Case, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, now a resident pastor at Eugene, Ore., and this link of old acquaintance makes Mr. Smith's stay in Maryville more pleasant.

'ITS GREAT TO GIVE'

W. H. DANFORTH SAYS WAR IS TEACHING US VALUABLE LESSON

'LIFE NOT ALL DOLLARS'

State Chm. of "Y" Fund and Head of Sunday School Ass'n Says We're Getting Back to "Home Base"

"Isn't it great—the way we've learned to give. I don't think I've ever had had more fun in my life than during the last month in this splendid campaign for the Y. M. C. A." W. H. Danforth, state chairman in charge of the campaign and president of the Missouri State Sunday School association got up from a table stacked with letters and papers in his room at the Linville hotel soon after his arrival this morning to tell a Democrat-Forum reporter how he expected to enjoy his visit in Maryville.

"I've heard lots about you folks up here," said he, "and now I'm to get better acquainted—but getting back to the campaign, you know I'm just full of it, and ready for another. Missouri has shown her colors in great shape."

"Don't you know," said Mr. Danforth, "this war is going to be a great blessing for us in one way. We have been money-mad and are just beginning to find out that there is something else in life besides making a dollar. It's great to be able to make the supreme sacrifice, but when we are unable to be at the front, our money ought to be the freest thing we have. What's the use hoarding it up when it's such pleasure to give it?

Praises Loyalty of Press.

"We had a great campaign in Missouri," continued Mr. Danforth, "and much of the credit is due the farmer—he's done his part all along the line. It has only been a question of getting the message to the people—I knew they'd respond, and you newspaper men have done the work. It's been great, the loyalty and patriotism of the press."

"But about the convention," his listener interrupted, as Mr. Danforth, showing an enthusiasm for his subject that indicated he might have, for the time, forgotten the real purpose of his visit.

At the question, Mr. Danforth's enthusiasm seemed to grow, but with an added seriousness.

"We're getting right back to home base," said he, " when we begin to take an interest in our Sunday schools. You know, the stream, to be clear, ought to have a clear source.

"I am not much afraid for the fellow who has had Sunday school training. When he gets to the front or away in some army camp, his early training is pretty apt to stay with him—at least, some of it will, and he will not fall for temptations as easily as the man who has been without it, and the Y. M. C. A. will mean a good deal to him. My, but it's a great thing that our boys have the 'Y' to go to while they're in this war. We'd be absolutely lost and at the mercy of Germany if it was not for the work of the Y. M. C. A."

Sunday School the Best Training.

"It's time we were taking a deeper interest in training our boys," declared Mr. Danforth. "Temptation is a hard thing for some of us and we don't know what will happen. I pray God every day of my life that I may be strong enough to withstand them, but I never know when I may stumble and fall. Our boys need all the protection we can give them, and I know of none better than to provide them with every opportunity and early training to live a clean life. The Sunday school is the basis of it all. And we're getting back to home base in these days of strife and sorrow.

"We're going to have the best convention in Maryville we've ever had," he continued. "I don't believe I can remember a program where there have been so many splendid men and women to help and to speak. It is not always the biggest gathering that does the most good, you know.

"There is just one thing I regret when I go to a convention," he said, and that is that I am not able to be in about four places at one time. I want to be in the thick of it all."

President Danforth will make the opening address at the Baptist church this afternoon and expects to remain during the entire convention.

Mrs. C. A. Lawler went to Hopkins today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Henry Morehouse.

CUT "WAR PROFITS"

"COAL DEALERS WILL HAVE TO REDUCE PRICE"—HEIFNER

TO "BE NO MONKEYING',

"We Have Authority, and if Dealers Are Not Satisfied With Prices Fixed, We'll Supply Coal."

With the appointment of a county fuel board by State Fuel Administrator Wallace Crossley, Maryville and other towns in the county are going to be able to purchase coal at prices that are within reason.

"Just say for me," said County Chairman J. J. Heifner this morning, "that 'war profits' are going to be eliminated. We're going to be able to get a normal supply of coal and it is going to be sold at a reasonable profit. Just as soon as I get definite information as to the cost, the county board will set the price for retailers and the public will be advised that any excess asked will not be allowed."

"We are getting the information necessary," continued Mr. Heifner, "and within a few days we will be able to advise the public fully just what they can depend on.

"If the local dealers don't want to handle coal at the figures we will name, we will arrange with the banks to handle the supply. The consumer will pay a reasonable profit and buy his coal through the bank. The banks will get their money and the coal company will get theirs. There is not going to be any monkeying with the business. We have the power to act in regulating the price and we are going to see to it that no dealers get more than is reasonably due him."

An Unreasonable Profit.

Said Mr. Heifner, "We all know what coal from the Bevier mines sells for, and we know the freight rate, and the Missouri coal that is being sold here now for $6.50 a ton gives the dealer a profit that is beyond reason.

"We want the consumers here to know that if they are not able to get coal from local dealers at a reasonable profit to make their complaints to this board at once and we will see that they are supplied with what they need and at a reasonable cost."

Mr. Heifner said that he was advised that there would be no trouble in getting a supply of coal that would meet normal demands during the winter, but urged that users conserve the supply and make it last as long as possible. He said he would be in his office to receive complaints from consumers and to see that every protection was afforded the person of small means as well as to others.

BROUGHT A NEW YELL

AND CHAIRMAN W. H. DANFORTH TAUGHT WORKERS TO USE IT

A DINNER AT ELKS CLUB

Y. M. C. A. Fund Workers Get Added Enthusiasm From 'Pep' Talks of Visitors—Nodaway Congratulated

"Is everybody satisfied?
No!
"Is everybody happy?
Yes!
"Let the Lion roar—
R-o-a-r!
"Let the eagle scream—
S-c-r-e-a-m!

It remained for state chairman of the Y. M. C. A. campaign, Wm. H. Danforth, to bring it to Maryville. Mr. Danforth calls it a slogan, but the way he showed the county workers at dinner at the Elks Club today how to "put it over,' it was a rousing yell. They used it in St. Louis with telling effect, Mr. Danforth told those at the dinner. It came direct from the battle fields and the last line was added after the Sammies got over.

About sixty campaign workers gathered to meet Mr. Danforth, A. W. Vaughn, district chairman at Cape Girardeau, and Hugh N. Stevens, district chairman at Jefferson City. Each of the vistors gave due praise to this district for putting it "over the top," and each briefly outlined what the fund meant to the boys in the army and at the front. Local workers gained added enthusiasm from their guests and adopted the new yell with great gusto.

Mr. Danforth said it was the custom in his town to award one of the outstanding workers in some way, and that the committee went to a canning factory and cut the bottom from a tin can, gave it an appropriate label and presented it to the best worker. He had a "medal" with him and said he knew of no one in this district who was better entitled to wear it than E. M. Claypool, who has worked untiringly for the success of the campaign. It was presented to him amid applause.

Mr. Claypool gave a report from each of the four counties in the district, Atchison, Worth, Nodaway and Gentry, showing that each one had exceeded its quota. County Chairman S. G. Gillam and township chairmen and workers, including several ladies, from all over the county, were in attendance at the dinner.

Paris, Nov. 20.—A movement to restore monarchial government in Russia has been launched according to a sensational telegram printed in "Informatione" today. SPOKE TO NORMAL STUDENTS

State W. C. T. U. President Told of Faults and Ideals of Young Men and Young Women

Mrs. Nelle Burger, state president of the W. C. T. U., spoke before the Normal students this morning on the faults and ideals of young men and ycung women.

Mrs. Burger gave as the faults of young men: Selfishness, gruffness, lack of ambition, lack of reverence for womanhood, smoking cigarettes, and lack of moral courage. A girl's ideal of a boy, she said, included kindness, gentleness, energy, total abstinence, purity and faith in God.

The faults of young women were given as frivolity, insincerity, gossip, disregard of health, gum-chewing, failure to use influence for good.

The man's ideal possesses gentleness, purity, faithfulness, ambition, total abstinence and faith in God.

Mrs. Burger's talk was based on results of a recent investigation in which 200 boys and girls were questioned, 100 letters having been written to each sex.

ed at noon today to attend the convention. While here Mr. Linn will be the guest of Mrs. Laura Beal and daughters at the Beal home on East Fourth street. Mr. Linn spoke at the college conference at the state Normal school this afternoon on the relation of the church college to the church Sunday school.

"No one can tell me Maryville is not progressive and her people are not the livest of live wires," was the first thing Mrs. Nelle G. Burger, state president of the W. C. T. U., said this morning when she gave the city a long "good morning" gaze. "While I was charmed with your city and people on my visit several years ago, I at once noticed the general appearance of progressiveness everywhere and am sure you are to be congratuated. I am anxious to see more of your town," continued Mrs. Burger. Roses from as widely traveled and well known woman as Mrs. Burger are highly appreciated. While at the convention Mrs. Burger is the house guest of Mrs. C. B. Roberts.

A thorough democracy is the foundation stone of the State Sunday school association, and while the executive board recommends any change in its policy of conduct which it thinks advisable, nothing is done apart from the convention body, and all matters are left to an open vote of the assembly. Last year 75 counties were represented and this year there are 80 sending delegations.

At noon today 300 local delegates were registered and many more are expected to register before the night session. The St. Louis delegation came in two special Pullmans in charge of Lansing F. Smith.

THE TAGLIAMENTO RIVER

This Historic Stream in Italy Figured in Another Important Military Campaign 120 Years Ago.

You've been reading in the telegraphic dispatches from Italy of the Tagliamento river that over a century ago figured in another important military campaign. The National Geographic Society at Washington, says of this river:

"The Tagliamento river, whose flooded banks served as a rampart for the retreating Italians for only a few days and which has now been crossed by the Austro-German forces, is a stream of no value commercially. It is one of many small rivers rising in the Carnic Alps and flowing through the Venetian plain into the Adriatic. Its headwaters are near Mt. Clapsavon, about 65 miles northwest of its entrance into the Adriatic, but the course of the stream is meandering, flowing first to the east and then south through a marshy valley, thus traversing a distance of 100 miles.

"Just 120 years ago the Tagliamento figured prominently in another great military campaign in northern Italy. It was during Napoleon's campaign of 1797 that reinforcements were greatly needed by the French. Bernadotte, who afterward was placed by Napoleon on the throne of Sweden as Charles XIV, led his army with signal dispatch from the banks of the Rhine to his commander-in-chief, and at the passage of the Tagliamento won enduring distinction.

"The Tagliamento flows past no important cities of Venetia. The most important of the small towns that squat upon its marshy banks are Venone, twenty miles by rail from the Austro-Italian frontier. Spilimbergo and Latisana. The last named place is equi-distant from Venice and Trieste on the 100 mile railway which connects these two important cities.

"The Tagliamento flows fifteen miles to the west of Udine, the first Italian city of importance to fall before the on rushing Teutonic forces in the present offensive.

"In ancient times the Tagliamento was known as Tilaventus."

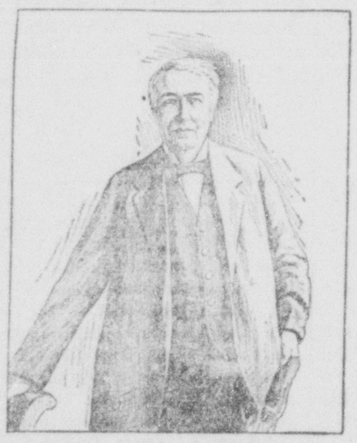
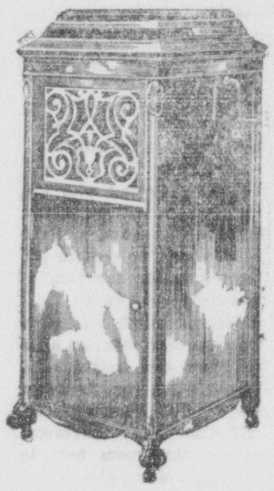
Real Greatness



lies in what men do for Humanity

Do you Know a Greater Man than



Thomas A. Edison

"It's Easy to Be Satisfied with the Ordinary Talking Machine if You Don't Know Any Better"---Warren Jones.

The NEW EDISON
"THE PHONOGRAPH WITH A SOUL"

Why did the great genius, Thomas A. Edison, devote almost four years of his valuable time to invent a new phonograph? Because he realized the reproduced sound and the original were unlike, and he set for himself the task of perfecting an instrument without a tone of its own so that it would reproduce perfectly and be indistinguishable from the original sound.

Mr. Edison did not announce his new phonograph until he had actually accomplished the perfect re-creation of sound.

Mr. Edison does not say go and hear the artist at the opera house, then go hear the artist's record at a dealer's store.

Mr. Edison does say: "Place the artist side by side with the record, let them sing together; if there's a difference you'll soon notice it." When matching ribbons they are placed side by side—just as color cannot be carried by the eye, so tone cannot be carried by the ear.

Why the New Edison belongs in your home—because it is the only sound-reproducing instrument that develops the original tone of the artist.

Studebaker
TRADE-IN-SALE

—we can see the end of this sale—
got almost all the used cars we can handle.
Have YOU been in?

You can actually make money by trading in your car today.

And you will practice genuine economy by doing it. A careful inquiry into the comparative values of Studebaker cars at present prices and the probability of all new car prices going sky-high after the first of the year, will prove to you that now is the time to make a trade-in as an investment.

No matter if you don't expect to use your car this winter. you'll be sure of a fine new car next spring, if you secure it now. You will, in all probability, save from $300 to $500.

There's bound to be a shortage of fine cars before spring—and what cars there are will perhaps rise 50 per cent in price. That's what well-informed observers tell us. War conditions have brought about this condition in England and there's every reason to suppose it will be duplicated here. Our advice to all our friends is to trade-in their old cars now.

Just now we can make you a wonderfully attractive offer because we still have a waiting market for a very few good used cars. We have now practically all the used cars we can handle.

Tomorrow may be too late for you to make your trade.

FORTY YEARS' SUCCESS.

For a business to be successful for forty years means a great deal. Among other things, it means remarkable excellence in the products it sells. No inferior article can be sold on a large scale for so many years; and it must not only be good at the outset, but so good that the progress of forty years shall not develop any better article to supercede it.

So women can, with confidence, depend upon that old, tried and tested remedy for women's ailments—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—still as popular as ever, though it was placed on the market before the centennial year, 1876.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
